- At a recent conference in Paris attended by General Nicolae Rădescu, Grigore Niculescu-Busești and Viorel Tilea, a tentative agreement was reached to establish a Rumanian resistance committee. Despite the opposition of Busești to the membership of Charles Davila and Tilea, both of the latter were accepted for the sake of a united front. All three present agreed that Rădescu will head the committee.

- The composition of the Rumanian resistance will be as follows:

General Nicolae Rădescu
Alexander Cretianu
Grigore Niculescu-Busești
Augustin Popa
Constantin Vlaoianu

- Another source reports that the purpose of Rădescu's trip to Europe is to contact King Mihai in order to explain the activities of the Rumanian political leaders in exile and to have Mihai decide as to the course they should follow. Rădescu is said to have expressed the hope that all Rumanian groups abroad will abide by Mihai's decision. Rădescu intends to return to the United States when the matter is settled.
- Busești has also arrived in Switzerland to see King Mihai in order to persuade him to make a declaration regarding his abdication and to seek his support for the Rumanian resistance committee.
